Founded in 2004, Agrocorp, established as a family-owned business targeting the high-end export market, specialized in artichokes. Solidifying its position in the global market by high quality privately labeled brands.

Through the company's commitment to excellence, inspired with the principles of integrity, quality, value and service.

The result of this simple, yet deeply resonant pledge was the evolution of "FOODY". Driven by the belief that there was a growing consumer market for high-quality, fresh tasting Mediterranean and Middle-Eastern food, "FOODY" was born, providing consumers with more than 40 high-quality and affordable food products. The development of Foody has demonstrated the company's strength and brand power.

Through impeccable marketing strategies, tactics and insightful research, Foody has positioned its diverse product lines as a reputable brand among both local and international markets.

Foody, the premier source for authentic Mediterranean and Middle-Eastern cuisine.
