We are a company of promise and possibilities, proud and mindful of what Egypt has to offer in the category of agricultural foods. From the way we grow our products to how we run our business, we are always pushing beyond boundaries to transform our company and to raise appreciation of Egyptian dates and other under marketed agro foods.

Our company values are our DNA. Through always working with integrity, pushing beyond boundaries, passion for winning and always working with others, we aim to realize our vision to become a global power in agricultural food industries. Our values guide the way we work with our business partners, with our communities and with each other.
